Begins in the Basement Store Saturday

BEGINNING Saturday morning in the Basement Store, we usher in the Christmas season with a Doll Show and Doll Dressing Contest. Our Annual Doll Show has become a fixed event in the minds of children and their parents. They look forward to it as the opening of the Holiday season and never fail to attend in large numbers. As a special inducement to encourage early shopping we offer some exceptional values in Dressed and Undressed Dolls. Buy now and save money.

In Conjunction With Our Doll Show We Hold a Doll Dressing Contest

—and offer three cash prizes to the person who brings in the best dressed doll. First prize, $10; second prize, $5; third prize, $2.50. The judges will be selected from El Paso's feminine setwomen in no way connected with the store. The dolls will be numbered and displayed in one of our Mesa Avenue Windows and contest will close December 15th. The only condition is that dolls entered in the contest must be purchased at "The Popular", so save your saleschecks to be handed in when you enter your doll in the contest.
